

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to acknowledge my profound gratitude and sincere thanks to Professor V.C.R.A.C. Crabbe who supervised this Paper and throughout the course of the Programme answered my many questions on legislative drafting.

I also wish to extend deep appreciation and sincere thanks to my colleague Ms. Sonia Joseph, who encouraged me to do the Programme.

There are not words enough to thank the Honourable Prime Minister, Mrs. Janet Jagan for believing in me.

The support of my Dad, Mom, my brother Abdul, Sunita and all my other family and friends is also deeply felt and appreciated.

This Paper could not have seen light of day without the efficient computer and typing skills, and patience of Waveney Webster who had the difficult task of understanding my handwriting which was barely legible.

To all of you, a special thank you!

Above all, without the grace of THE ALMIGHTY ALLAH, who guided me throughout my life, this work could not have been accomplished.

Ms. Jamela A. Ali

University of the West Indies
Faculty of Law
Cave Hill
Barbados

October 1997